PJ Edmund, Sr., a professional trainer, seminar leader, and corporate retreat facilitator. He is the Founder and Senior Training Consultant/Facilitator for PJ Edmund Leadership Institute (the training arm of PJ Edmund Enterprises, LLC). As a professional trainer, Dr. Edmund is highly regarded for his challenging, high content message, as well as his practical and revealing approach to the many leadership challenges that exist in our teams, in our workplaces, regardless of size, philosophies, or viewpoint! Dr. PJ has twenty plus years of teaching, training and development experience in: higher education, corporate, government, and nonprofit sectors.

In corporate America, he has served in various capacities, including:

- Executive Director of Training for the Washington, DC Office of Social Services
 - Specializing in program development for staff in the Foster Care industry

- Assistant Vice President in Student Development in an urban Community College
 - Specializing in New Student Orientation
 - Career and Academic Counseling
 - Enrollment Management (Admissions)
 - Adjunct Faculty, in Continuing Education (including Adult Basic Education (ABE), and Pre-GED preparation)

Dr. PJ's experiences reach into Europe, specifically in England, as a Staff Trainer and Facilitator in Avon County, and the University of West England. Dr. PJ provides a wealth of experience and innovation, in his work as he academically-inspires organizations and ministries, as a professional trainer in the Kingdom of God, through his firm, the PJ Edmund Leadership Institute. He has dedicated his life's work to developing Ministry Leadership Teams that they might provide another level of excellence and relevance to ministry function, operations, and administration.

The training provided, through PJEM Leadership Institute, is designed to transform and empower Christian leaders, pastors, ministers and ministry teams, by teaching principles and strategies that present a fresh approach in the development of outstanding leadership and excellence in the Kingdom, and in our local church communities, which is what we need in today's changing ministry environment.

PJ is the founder and senior pastor of Timbrel Church International, a church "Commissioned to Renew Lives"; he's the Executive Director of PJ Edmund Enterprises, LLC, and PJ Edmund Ministries, Inc. A native of England, now residing in the United States, Dr. Edmund is a renowned-international and national preacher and teacher.

He has an earned doctorate in Philosophy, Christian Counseling and Psychology; two honorary doctorates in Divinity and Humane Letters; an earned Master's in Theology; and a Bachelor's in Chemistry. Dr. Edmund is also a six (6) time published author, chiefly focused on leadership development.
